New Year's resolutions? The City can help!

The City of Socorro is a huge supporter of New Year's Resolutions. Here's how they can help all of us stick to them:

Get fit! Socorro's recreation program has organized team sports for children and adults alike: basketball, softball, flag football, and many more. There is a weight room at the Finley Complex on McCutcheon street that is open to the public, and twice a week there is a yoga class.

The City also provides venues (soccer and baseball fields and gymnasium access) to sport and fitness clubs like AYSO and the wrestling club. There's a track at Clark Field that the public can use, and a 50-meter pool in the summer.

Feed your mind! There are few treasures as precious as our Socorro Public Library. They not only have enough books to feed your passion, they also have computers for public use, tax information, programs throughout the year for kids and adults alike, and magazines, newspapers and audio books on nearly every topic you can imagine. And if they don't have it, they can probably find it for you.

Eat right! Ever been to the Farmers Market? You can eat fresh vegetables even now in the dead of winter by shopping at the indoor winter market on Saturday mornings at the Finley complex. The Farmers Market operates year round so you can eat healthy all year!

Photos (clockwise from left): members of the Socorro Junior Wrestling Club watch a demonstration of a new move; the winter market sign over the doorway to the market across the parking lot from the police station; Marie Avey reads with her son JJ and daughter Julia at the Socorro Public Library.

No excuses!
